Jas. A. Wood has traded his residence in town now occupied by J. G. Caldwell to C. N. Ausmus for Mr. Ausmus' 20 acre farm southwest of town. Mr. Wood has rented the farm to Otis Buel of Brookfield who with his mother moved to the farm this week.

School Opened Monday

The Laclede schools began the year's work last Monday under very favorable conditions. The faculty is strong clear through this year, with but one new teacher—Miss Hazel Slusher, of Odessa, assistant in the high school. Miss Slusher is experienced in high school work and has already made a favorable impression on our people and in the school room. The rest of the faculty, Miss Minnie Trippier, superintendent; Miss Mele Myers, principal of high school; Misses Cassie Heath, Arvilla Garside and Gladys Power, of the grades, and Miss Nellie Barber, primary, have all made good heretofore in our schools, and everything went off smoothly from the start.

The enrollment is about with last year, 50 in the high school, 75 in the grades, and 25 in the primary.

In addition to having charge of music, the board has elected Mrs. Flo Shell supply teacher.

Annual Stock Sale

C. M. Burnett will hold his annual stock sale at his farm one and a half miles southwest of Laclede next Thursday, September 14, to begin at 10:00 o'clock. The full particulars of the sale will be found in his advertisement in The Blade today. Mr. Burnett has been conducting these sales for several years now and they are very popular with the farmers and others who are looking for good stuff.

Meeting of City Council

The city council held its regular monthly meeting Monday night, all members present. Clerk's report showed up to date 71 auto license had been issued and $178.00 turned in to the city treasury. There had been collected on occupation tax, $45.00; poll tax, $140.00; dog tax, $26.00. Alderman Albin's report on the picture show for the months of July and August showed a net profit to the city for the two months the sum of $30.37. Two or three propositions for a tourist camping ground within the city were discussed but no definite action was taken more than to reject one of them.

Farm Sales

Joe H. Eyman, Monday sold his 70 acres of land northwest of Laclede to J. L. Wade for $7,150, cash. Mr. Eyman the same day bought Geo. L. Kranz's farm of 95 acres south of Brookfield for $14,000. Carl Wilson engineered the sales.

Take Good Care of The Hen

Eggs have held up in price better than most any product.

While the hen is moulting she will do little at laying.

Feed her properly and she will moult in one-half the time and begin producing at once.

We have the Quisenberry Moulting Mash which brings the results. Feed your hens this mash during the moulting season then follow up with Quisenberry Laying Mash and you will be well paid in the great increase in your eggs. A fresh car just received.

Laclede Farmers Exchange.

The Gollmar dog and pony show is billed to be in Brookfield next Wednesday.

ON LOCAL SUBJECTS

Local Items and Interesting Bits of News of All Sorts

In addition to promoting a school for the colored children, the ladies of the P. E. O. have put music into the public schools. They have employed Mrs. Flo Shell as teacher and music will be a part of the regular school program. This is a big undertaking but the ladies seem never to tire of doing all the good they can in the community along educational and civic lines and in this new undertaking we bespeak for them the hearty support and liberal help the movement is worthy of.

C. E. Tracy, who recently sold his telephone business at Palmyra, has bought the exchange at Camp Point, Ill., and took charge the first of the month. The family moved from Palmyra to Camp Point this week. Camp Point has a population of 1500, is on the main line of the Burlington, 23 miles from Quincy and on the hard surfaced road from Quincy to Chicago. Mr. Tracy is one of the best telephone men we know of and Camp Point isto be congratulated on having him locate there. They will like this estimable family.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul S. Lomax, returning to their home at Trenton, N. J., from a vacation visit with the latter's parents at Las Vegas, New Mexico, spent Monday here with the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Lomax. Mr. Lomax is director of business education with the board of education of Trenton, and during the summer was called to give a series of lectures on commercial education at Simmons college, Boston, and at the state university of Ohio, and also addressed the national educational association at Boston. Paul is one young man of whom Laclede has just reasons to be proud.

Joe Preston of Hope, Idaho, an old time Laclede citizen who has been on our list ever since the first issue of the paper thirty-two years ago, sent in his annual dues this week. Joe's old time friends here will be glad to learn that he is well and still holding a job with the Northern Pacific railroad. He says his brother Will, who has long been a passenger conductor in the west, has not yet regained his health that failed some time ago, but the other members of the family are well. His brother Frank, who is also a passenger conductor, has just returned from spending his summer vacation in Alaska. Joe wishes to be remembered to his friends here, especially to James Hamilton and Wm. Frakes.

The private school for colored children, sponsored by the P. E. O. society, opened Monday with Miss Mary Henry, of Trenton, teacher. She comes highly recommended as a capable teacher and a successful school is expected. The enrollment the first day was seven.
